THE WORLD'S BEST BOUTIQUE HOTELS ARE REVEALED

The winners of the Boutique Hotel Awards 2019 were announced last night at the prestigious Awards ceremony held at the Merchant Taylors' Hall, London. The ceremony brought together an array of boutique hotel owners, travel and lifestyle press and travel industry influencers from all four corners of the globe.

This year's keynote speech was delivered by Maureen O'Hare, travel expert and CNN journalist. Maureen is a Senior Digital Producer for CNN Travel. She commissions, edits and writes travel news and features from around the world for CNN's global audience of millions. She has more than 15 years' experience in digital media, working for organisations including Microsoft and the BBC. Her work reporting for CNN has taken her to travel destinations in Kenya, Azerbaijan, Hong Kong, Greece, New York and beyond. Born and raised in Northern Ireland, she is based at CNN's London bureau

INFORMATION ON THE AWARDS

The Boutique Hotel Awards is the first and only international awards organisation exclusively dedicated to recognising unique excellence among boutique hotels. The Awards, now in its 9th year, honours the people behind these outstanding properties and brings together members of The Master Key Society; where relationships are built exclusively among the Award Winners by facilitating hotel exchange visits between them.

AWARDS PROCESS

What makes a Boutique Hotel Award meaningful? Simply put, the hotels and private villas are actually visited. It is the only independent awards organisation in hospitality where each and every property is visited personally by an experienced hotel judge, who specialises in each category, and where decisions on winners depend on true first-hand guest experience at the property.

The winners were selected from over 300 Nominees in over 80 countries. Each entrant was nominated by a member of the Awards Nomination Committee, comprising 70 leading trailblazing travel experts, whose business it is to be 'in the know' concerning the extraordinary boutique hotels. The Awards then coordinate judge evaluation visits with each shortlisted nominee. The judges document all aspects of the guest experience covering six categories: dining and entertainment, design, facilities, location and, most importantly, staff service and overall emotional impact. Finally, these extensive hand-written evaluations are meticulously studied by our Awards Panel, which decides our regional and World's Best Award winners.

FROM THE NIGHT:

“There are not many unique hotels in the world so if you are one of them you should be part of these awards.” - Isabella Grohn, Arctic Hotel Collection

“Every winner stands for making their dream come true and each founding story could make a synopsis of a film. It is all about sharing your passions and executing it in the best way possible. Also offering a unique experience is the name of the game, not only in the Hotel industry. As a founder of an eco-luxury skincare line, I can identify strongly with all of these concepts. I feel very close at heart with our winners!” - Elisabeth Visoanska, Founder of Visoanska, Boutique Hotel Awards Host 2019

“It was an honour to co-host the Xth World Boutique Hotel Awards at Merchant Taylor’s Hall. Travel has always been a passion not just a job for me, and meeting many of the luxury boutique hoteliers has certainly given me lots of inspiration for 2020 and beyond.” - Cally Squires, has written for The Times, The Telegraph & GQ
